MA 2010 Conference Update

Welcome to the second MA2010 Conference E-Bulletin.

Museums Australia (Victoria) is hosting the Museums Australia National Conference in Melbourne in 2010. Interesting Times: New Roles for Collections will run from Tuesday 28 September – Saturday 2 October 2010 at the University of Melbourne's Parkville campus.

The Organising Committee warmly welcomes all museum professionals to register to attend this stimulating conference.

Registration now open!

Register now for the MA2010 National Conference and save up to 45% with the earlybird member rate. Current Museums Australia members receive a discount of 24% off the non-member rate if registering before 15 July 2010.

Not a member? Join MA now and save! Individual membership packages start at $143 for one year. Institutional membership packages start at $121 for one year. Concessions apply for concession card holders.

For more details see the MA website or contact us. Alternatively, subscribe to the MA2010 E-Bulletin to receive Conference updates. But hurry, earlybird discounts close on 15 July 2010!

First guest speakers announced

We have already secured some inspiring guest speakers from Australia and overseas, including: Michelle Hippolite, Kaihautū of Te Papa Tongarewa, Museum of New Zealand; Professor Richard Sandell, Director and Head of Department of Museum Studies at the University of Leicester; and Professor Morris Vogel, President of the Lower East Side Tenement Museum in New York City.

These eminent speakers are highly respected in their fields including bicultural leadership, human rights and culture as an agent of social change. More guest speaker announcements to come soon. Find out more on our speakers page.
